Representative Vince Leach Congratulates LD11 Business on Being Named a Retailer of the Year

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Representative Vince Leach (R-11) today congratulated The Happy Saguaro in Oro Valley on being named Legislative District 11's Retailer of the Year by the Arizona Retailers Association.

Representative Leach nominated The Happy Saguaro, a gallery and store selling regional pottery and Southwestern décor, for the award.

"The Happy Saguaro showcases the culture and heritage of Legislative District 11, and owners Edgar and Betty Castillo are pillars of our community," said Representative Leach. "I'm so proud that The Happy Saguaro has been selected as one of the Arizona Retailers Association's 2018 Retailer of the Year."

"The Retailer of the Year awards allow state legislators to identify a retailer in their district who has taken the plunge, opened a storefront, built a customer base, and lived the ups and downs of retail," said Michelle Ahlmer, executive director of the Arizona Retailers Association. "The Happy Saguaro is a retailer that wants the best for their customers, employees, and community, and we're thrilled to recognize owners Edgar and Betty Castillo as passionate, hardworking merchants."
